Mr. Joe DeSantis
Charitable You

Dear Joe,

We are soliciting on behalf of a recognized, tax-deductible charitable organization as an authorized 501 (c) (3) organization.

Sugar Hill Christian Academy gives consent to Charitable You to sell items donated to the church on eBay. In addition, we received advance written consent from the charitable organization including:

- A readable photo or scanned image of the written consent (this proof can't be a link to a website). The letter must be on the charity's letterhead and signed by one of the organization's officers.
- The charity's tax-deductibility status.
- Your name or eBay user ID, dates of event or listings, and the donation amount (percentage of the final sale price) you'll be donating if your item sells.

Sincerely,
Wes Walker
